What We Do

- Help you to understand a writing assignment
- Ask questions to help you think through challenges
- Encourage you to resolve your issues directly with your instructor
- Help you to generate ideas for your assignment
- Explain things in manageable, understandable ways
- Assist you in revising a paper
- Explain grammatical concepts so that you can find and fix your errors on your own
- Show you how to manage reading comprehension
- Examine and address academic anxieties
- Refer you to tutors who are available on campus in other non-English disciplines

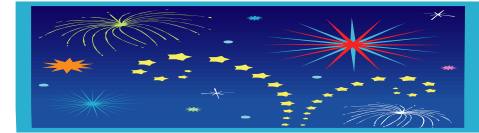

What We Don't Do

Tutors will not do the following for you:

- Teach new material when you have missed class
- Do your homework for you
- Help you with take-home exams
- Revise or write any part of your paper for you
- Address issues with your instructors for you
- Necessarily be able to help you at the last minute

What You Can Do

We are here to help you do your work; come with an open mind prepared to think and be resourceful. Here are a few things you can do to make the most of your educational process at St. Vincent's College:

- Attend every class and sit in front of the classroom.
- Listen attentively in class, take notes, ask questions, and copy everything the instructor writes on the board.
- Try to do the work on your own before your tutoring session and identify your problem areas.
- Avoid waiting until the last minute!

Remember to Bring

- Textbooks & syllabus
- Class notes & handouts
- Homework & assignments
- Pencils, notebook & other materials
- A positive attitude!
